

Dossier Organization of Contents for candidates undergoing Renewal, Promotion and Tenure (RPT) Review

July 28, 2023

When building your dossier, name your documents as specified below and save as PDFs to a folder on your hard drive. Once you have received notification that the current version of the RPT application is available, upload your PDF documents to the appropriate sections by your department's deadline.

NOTE: Per the Provost's 2023-24 RPT Guidelines, dossiers should not exceed 500 pages (exclusive of supplemental materials)

- Curriculum Vitae
  - Your comprehensive CV must be completed in the College format (template on A&S website).
- Teaching Portfolio
  - Follow the Teaching Portfolio guidelines, appending separately documents for the next three sections below.
    - (If hired prior to 2012, a detailed Teaching Statement is an acceptable alternative.)
- Peer teaching evaluations (upload to Teaching Record Section)
  - Include at least 3 peer evaluations from the past 3 years.
  - Each PDF should be named: Peer Teaching eval by (last name of peer)
- Student Evaluations of Teaching (upload to Teaching Record Section)
  - Summary of student Evaluations should be named: 0_Summary
    - Be sure to convert Excel file to PDF before uploading.
  - Individual course evaluations, named Student Eval_YYYY_semester_course number
    - The number of evaluations included should be representative, not exhaustive.
- Course materials
  - Include the syllabus and just one or two PDF samples of course materials from each course.
  - Name each document: YYYY_semester_course number_ (document name)
    - Examples: 2023_spring_ENGL422_Syllabus or 2022_Fall_SOC101_FinalExam
  - NOTE: PowerPoint files must be converted to PDF before uploading. If a .Ppt file has audio, video and/or special animations, place a "read me" doc here pointing reviewers to the Supplemental Materials portion. Upload .Ppt file there; original format will be retained.
- Research Statement
- Service Statement

- Supplemental Materials

- Candidate should consult with the Unit Head regarding which supplemental materials to include.
- Both Unit Head and Candidate must sign the list of supplemental materials
- All supplemental materials uploaded to the RPT app will convert to hyperlinks, so file size is not limited, nor is type of file. Please include any/all of the below, as agreed upon by your chair.
